- The BRL Board must determine whether an appeal fee should be charged.

Points Allocation – 2013 Season

- 70 Points to be allocated to each A Grade team per match – the points are to be tallied for the 17 players selected for each match.
- All 2011 BRL/FCRL A Grade players will be deemed as zero (0) points with the club they played with in 2012 should they remain with that club in 2013.
- Each player will not be graded at an 'A Grade' category until he has played five (5) games in the BRL Competition.
- All other player categories require only one (1) game to have been at that level within the last five (5) seasons.
- Points would be gained throughout the 2012 BRL Competition & other representative games throughout the 2012 season will carry over to 2013 season.
- Player points values are not cumulative – individual players will only be categorised at the highest level .
- Players can move from their Junior club for 2 seasons and return without attracting points for their junior club – once only.

2013 Season

- Clubs are required to supply the BRL with each player's points value at time of registration (note: Players Points Index Form)
- Each player's points value are to be documented on each club's weekly match sheet based on the individual player's points value as determined/verified by the BRL Commissioner
- The BRL Commissioner will issue the points values to all clubs for reference on match days
- Enquires relating to points allocations/categories are to be forward to the BRL Commissioner
- Any application regarding points dispensation/exemption must be in writing addressed to the BRL Commissioner

BRL JUNIOR DEFINITIONS

- Juniors: defined as U/18 or under who have registered with Bundaberg Junior Rugby League &/or Fraser Coast Junior Rugby League
- 'Local junior' has to have played a minimum of one (1) year with a club in the Local Junior Competitions (Bundaberg Junior Rugby League & Fraser Coast Junior Rugby League) to be classified as a 'local junior'
- If a player has played the majority of junior (international) years at one club, then he automatically becomes a 'local junior' for that club
- If a player has played equal years with a number of clubs then prior to the commencement of the season, he must nominate to the BRL Commissioner his junior club of choice (Note: the player's decision is final)
- Local junior will be allocated zero (0) points

MATCH DAY POINTS COMPLAINTS

- All complaints/disputes relating to the Points System must be in writing addressed to the BRL Secretary prior to 12 midday of the following Wednesday after the match
- The Qualifications Committee shall deal with all enquires by 12 midday of the ensuing Wednesday
- Penalties for a club found in breach of exceeding points allocations include a maximum fine of $1000 per match with the automatic loss of the match and all points scored
